After Labor-Management Committee Training:

As part of the labor management committee training process, it is suggested that Partnership staff be invited to attend one of your next LMC meetings to provide feedback and support. Four months after the training, a survey will be sent to the members of the LMC. Additional details regarding this will be discussed at the conclusion of the training.

Labor-Management Certification:

By submitting this application, the management representative and CSEA local president noted below certify that all information contained in this application is accurate and complete. The assessment of training needs and development of this training is the result of joint labor-management collaboration. The management representative and the CSEA local president will continue to be involved in all aspects of course arrangements and delivery.
