

Looking for ways to resolve workplace conflicts? Want to establish a labor-management committee or improve an existing one?

If you are a CSEA leader or New York State manager, consider:

Labor-Management Services

Labor-Management Committee Training

Training for new and experienced committee members to help build strong relationships and improve committee structure.

Consultation and Facilitation Services

Assists labor and management with collaborative skill building for effective and cooperative interaction.

Online Learning Labor-Management Courses

- Labor-Management Committee Basics – Covers the essentials of maintaining effective labor-management relationships
- Working With the Contracts – Develops an understanding of the labor-management environment and the NYS & CSEA agreements

Working Together: A Blueprint for Labor-Management Collaboration Videos

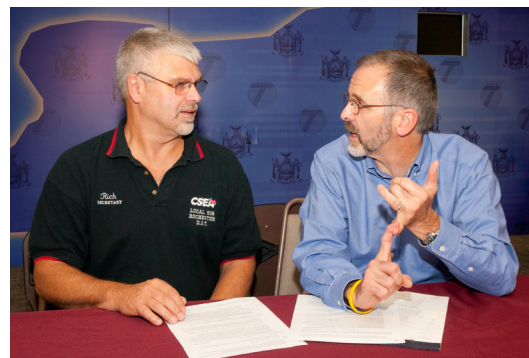

A series of eight training videos that provide labor-management committees with tools for building collaborative working relationships and contain “best practices” to help build and sustain successful partnerships.

Labor-Management Resource Center

Offers resources, links, and downloadable forms.

Three Outcomes for a Successful Labor-Management Committee

1. Advance ability to accomplish agency mission
2. Improve quality of employee work life
3. Enhance labor-management relations climate www.nyscseapartnership.org

For more information, call (518) 486-7814 or (800) 253-4332 or email:
stephanie.burkes@nyscseapartnership.org or maryellen.cox@nyscseapartnership.org