Fingerprint Fee Reimbursement Program

Program Description

The Fingerprint Fee Reimbursement Program provides reimbursement to eligible CSEA-represented New York State employees who are affected by agency or facility closure, consolidation, curtailment of activities, downsizing, reduction in force activity, or due to reasons of economy or efficiency, and reemployed into a permanent or temporary CSEA-represented position and required to pay a fingerprint fee. This program is not intended to replace existing agency fingerprint fee reimbursement or fingerprint fee waiver programs.

Eligibility

To be eligible, a person must be:

• A permanent New York State employee represented by CSEA (ASU, ISU, OSU, or DMNA) affected by agency or facility closure, consolidation, curtailment of activities, downsizing, reduction in force activity, or due to reasons of economy or efficiency on or after January 1, 2011

  - or -

A temporary New York State employee with Attendance Rules coverage represented by CSEA (ASU, ISU, OSU or DMNA) who is terminated due to agency or facility closure, consolidation, curtailment of activities, downsizing, reduction in force activity, or due to reasons of economy or efficiency on or after January 1, 2011

• Reemployed into a permanent or temporary CSEA-represented position
• Required to pay a fee to be fingerprinted as a condition of employment
